ORIGINAL
CARTOON WORK AT QAS

THE Canberra Times cartoonist Ian Sharpe is one of the best in 'telling a story in pictures' and 16 of his works will become available at the Queanbeyan Art Society Gallery. Ian has donated these original works to QAS to raise funds for the Society and the committee has decided to offer the works at the Queanbeyan Leagues Club Art Exhibition opening on Sunday 1st April, 2012 at 2-00pm. It will be a 'Dutch Auction' where a bid is put in an envelope and opened at the end of the day and there will be a reserve price on each piece. Many thanks Ian. We much appreciate your generosity and know your work will be keenly sought after.

NEW AGM DATE

THE recent QAS AGM passed a change in dates for future AGMs and there will be a new membership fee date starting on July 2013. In future the QAS AGM will be held in May each year which will bring the books in line with the financial year and hopefully make members more mindful that the fees are due each year. The new membership due date will be the 1st June starting in 2013 and of course it will mean members will get an extended membership this year going from March 2012 to June 2013. The 2012 fee is $40 but in 2013 it will go up to $50, giving plenty of time to save that little extra.

CHANGE

ARTISTS are always on the lookout for workshops and QAS has always been mindful to provide the members with as many as possible throughout the year. The next workshop at the QAS Gallery will be held on Saturday May 19th-Sunday May 20th Belinda Ingram Pastel Workshop. Belinda also takes mixed medium classes every second Sunday at the QAS Gallery.

YOUR CALENDAR
ART

THE 2012 QAS Calendar has been another huge success and extra copies had been printed to be used for promotion of the Society. Every member is entitled to have a painting in the Calendar and the committee would like to start getting members' works together as soon as possible. Members can choose which painting they would like in the 2013 QAS Calendar so please submit as soon as possible.

SOCIAL SHOTS AT THE QUEANBEYAN AGE EXHIBITION

Karen Hall and Eileen Slattery admire Karen's winning works. Below the airbrushed eye.

Members and Friends of the Society are taking in the demo of airbrushing by member Kylie Heslop. Right: the Norris family are keen to see the airbrushing but loved mum's (Rachael's) winning works.

THE Queanbeyan Age Abstract Art Competition/Exhibition judge Dennis Mortimer had to allow himself more time for the judging because he claimed it is an exciting collection of abstract works. The Queanbeyan Age was represented by Andrew Benson and he was delighted to officially open the Exhibition and present the awards. Member Kylie Heslop engaged the crowd in her demonstration of airbrushing.

LOOKING AT GRANTS

MEMBER Dee McGrath has answered the call for a QAS 'Grants Officer' advertised in the March Newsletter. Dee is very busy in the real world and is in fact the CEO of Carers ACT.

The need for a grants person for QAS to look at possibly securing grants is an idea from the committee.

It appears there are several ways to get art grants but the committee is a little thin on the ground to give of their extra time. Welcome aboard Dee and hope you are enjoying Belinda Ingram's art classes on Sunday mornings.

MAY PASTEL WORKSHOP

BELINDA Ingram will conduct a pastel workshop on Saturday May 12th– Sunday May 13th at the QAS Gallery.

The bookings are now being taken and can be made by ringing on 62861754 or Gallery Manager Jean Helmers on 62978181.

MEMBERS ARE WINNERS

IT is always nice to recognise our members' efforts and successes and we are pleased to do this if they let the committee know.

The following QAS members had success at the Canberra Show; Camelia Smith (a 1st and 3rd), Belinda Ingram (3rd) and Nik Rajic (sold). Members have done well in sales at the Canberra Times Charity Art Show at the Hyatt in Canberra. A list in the April Newsletter.

$10,000 QUEANBEYAN ART

THE Queanbeyan City Library will soon be relocating to a refurbished building at 6 Rutledge Street. The Library provides a broad range of resources and services to the community, including books, magazines and DVDs for loan, information and internet services, a local history collection, and services for children and youth.

Expressions of Interest are sought from artists living or working in Queanbeyan, for concept designs for public artworks for the new Library. It is planned to commission a number of artworks suitable for installation within the Library or on the external walls.

The theme for the Library artworks is 'The Word and its many expressions'. This covers the wide gamut of words and their many representations as can be found in the Library – books, magazines, newspapers, stories, poems, phrases, scripts, word fonts, the written and spoken word, braille, as well as new technologies like eBooks and iPads or image projections onto walls or ceiling.

Queanbeyan artists are invited to submit concept designs for a public artwork or artworks based around this theme, up to a maximum cost of $10,000.

The selected artworks will be located in a new community building with high visibility, and preference will be given to artworks that are emphatic to the cultural and social aspects of the Library and its place in the community. More information about the library public artworks can be obtained from Georgina Perri on 62856170 or georgina.perri@qcc.nsw.gov.au. A further project is being developed to create a welcoming approach to the new Library with a series of artwork panels in different materials such as glass, wood, metal or other treatments.

The panels are to be installed between a row of pillars along the main walkway leading into the Library from Rutledge Street. Interested Queanbeyan artists are invited to discuss their ideas for this project with Georgina Perri on 62856170 or georgina.perri@qcc.nsw.gov.au.

An outline of your concept for a Library public artwork, with drawings and/or images, and a current CV outlining previous art projects should be forwarded to:

AGM POINTERS

President: Barry Cranston Vice President: vacant (Kevin Richardson agreed to act in the role temporarily) Secretary: vacant, Treasurer: Pam Padovan, Gallery Manager: Jean Helmers, Committee members: Belinda Ingram; Karen Hall and Kevin Richardson

TREASURER'S REPORT

Pam Padovan tabled the Audit Report and the Profit and Loss Report. Our sponsorship has gone down a lot this year, more than half. Although some competitions lose money, it is balanced out by others that make money. It was noted that we acted as auspice body for Denis Mortimer to access a grant from Queanbeyan City Council. Gallery Painters have contributed considerably to the gallery income over the year. We made over $4,000 from the Rotary Art Show. It was noted that without our sponsors, our profit would not be as healthy. We need to get a written statement from sponsors of the amount they are giving us in future. Even though costs have increased, our telephone and electricity bills were both down this year. Well done everyone for considering these two items. Discussion ensued in regard to the gallery operating as frugally as possible by doing as much as we can to keep our costs down, which included taking on jobs ourselves rather than paying for them to be done and bundling items to be posted rather than sending separate mail.

Motion to nominate Pam Padovan for life membership, put by Barry Cranston, seconded by Belinda Ingram.

The 2011 committee members are in agreement with this nomination. The motion was Carried.

QAS LIFE MEMBERSHIP

A period of QAS dedication has been rewarded when Pam Padovan was granted QAS Life Membership. The long time member has served as President, Secretary (3), Treasurer (3) and numerous sub committees.

Congratulations Pam!

BRING AND BUY SALE of PRE LOVED ART GOODS

SELLERS - Do you need to have a clearance of Pre- Loved Art Materials, eg, books, frames, paint boards, paper, brushes, etc? Any art supplies that you don't want but are loathe to get rid of because there is still a bit of life left in them – maybe so you can buy some more?

BUYERS - Do you want some great bargains to make production of art less expensive? Please deliver to the QAS Gallery items for sale, on Saturday 6th May 2012 .

Depending on the success of this venture, we hope to have a similar sale of larger goods, ie, easels, frames, etc, for which QAS will take a small commission with the bulk of the amount going to the seller.

All proceeds to Queanbeyan Art Society.

A WORD OF WORKSHOP THANKS

DEAR Pam (Padovan), and the ladies on the committee who helped Pam make Beth Monahan's Workshop such a success. This was my first time attending a workshop at QAS and I must say I was a little apprehensive - but can I say that my fears were very quickly laid to rest when I entered the QAS on Friday afternoon. Thanks to you Pam and your helpers the whole workshop ran very smoothly and I am sure that I speak for all the ladies that were there that we thoroughly enjoyed ourselves and had a great time. I will look forward to attending further workshops at the QAS and will certainly recommend them to my "artie" friends. Once again a big thank you for a job well done Pam. Anna Stewart (Member). The workshop was in watercolour using everything except traditional methods. Very exciting for those wishing to push the boundaries and create exciting work.

MARJIKE MAKES MARK

MEMBER Marjike Gilchrist produced a marvellous 'Marks of Nature' Exhibition after her visit to the NT and was delighted with the new venue.

Marjike could not have been more pleased with her Exhibition and at the excellent crowd that supported the opening. The new venue for Marjike proved most beneficial and made some pleasing sales up to the end of the Exhibition.

Fast getting a reputation for presenting professional art exhibitions is the RM Studio and Gallery Aurora Ave, Queanbeyan.

Owner Claire Primrose opens the very professional Exhibition.

ROTARY ART SHOW GUEST ARTISTS

THE 2012 Rotary/Art Society Art Show to be held in City Walk Canberra from Saturday 29th September to Monday 8th October will again see four QAS members exhibiting and will also have a painting in the raffle. This year the committee has asked Jacqui King, Belinda Ingram, Beth Monohan and Nic Rajic. In previous years the guest artists have sold well and it is hoped the trend will continue because these members will present a great variety of works. This is the fifth Rotary/Art Society Art Show and a great deal of funds have been raised for the charities in the Queanbeyan and Canberra Region.

PLEASE CLEAN THE GALLERY

GALLERY painters are asked to please give the Gallery a clean after using on the day you attend. The committee has gone to great lengths to hire a good cleaner but it is also the responsibility of users to keep things clean for the next class. So far this year the QAS cleaning bill is $2,385.00. It would be good to cut back if possible. It is hoped the Gallery should need a professional clean once a month!

NEWSLETTER NEWS

THE committee is always looking for news and items for the QAS Newsletter and encourage members and Friends of the Society to submit articles. It is encouraging that we are getting word of the value of this Newsletter but we can always improve the product.

GETTING WORKS READY

MEMBERS you should look at the QAS Calendar of Events and try and get a painting ready every month. Enjoy your painting!

AN AIR OF ART

Airbrushed Portrait.

MEMBER Kylie Heslop is pictured giving a demo of airbrushing at the QAS AGM. Many 'old hands' could not believe how good this form of art is and are keen to take up Kylie's offer of free lessons. The committee was so impressed that they invited Kylie back to give a demo at the opening of the Abstract Exhibition Opening. Already we do have members using the airbrush for backgrounds etc in their mixed medium works. The portrait above has been airbrushed by Kylie.

PRESIDENT'S PALETTE

A huge thank you to Ian Sharpe (Canberra Times Cartoonist) for donating some of his original cartoons to put to a Dutch Auction at the Queanbeyan Leagues Club Art Competition/Exhibition on Sunday 1st April 2012. No doubt the works will be well sought after and the funds raised will go to the QAS members benefit. Ian was a wonderful guest speaker and it is hoped we can have him back because I am sure he left out many of the personal stories that should be told as an artist. Many thanks to those members who put their hands up to take on the committee jobs for the coming year and we will be looking to form more sub-committees so those who can help please come forward. New member Dee McGrath has answered the call and is looking at what grants QAS may be able to take advantage of as she experienced in this field. It is pleasing to see our members having success throughout the region and the first day of the Canberra Times Charity Art Show at the Canberra Hyatt Hotel in Canberra saw many of our members selling works. Thanks to member Kylie Heslop for her wonderful demonstration of Airbrushing. It is a new form of art for many that can be used with different media and can be included in backgrounds etc. We have many talented members and I hope we are able have others come forward and share their experiences as guest speakers. Please advise me if you know of a guest speaker we can get for openings.

*Yours in Art,
